

International conference on the occasion of the 10th anniversary of the Polish Oral History Association

Oral History in Action

Poland, Cracow, March 28–30, 2019
Institute of History, Jagiellonian University
ul. Gołębia 13, 31-007 Kraków, Poland

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

March 28th, 2019 (Thursday)

Józef Tischner Aula

13.30 Registration

14.15 Welcome Address: Sławomir Sprawski (Head of the Institute of History), Wojciech Kucharski (Deputy Director of the „Remembrance and Future” Centre, Wrocław), Karolina Żłobicka (President of the Polish Oral History Association)

14.40 Discussion Panel: The past and the future of oral history – poliphony, choir or cacophony, Dobrochna Kałwa, Piotr Filipkowski and Marcin Jarząbek

16.00 Keynote lecture: Alessandro Portelli, Migrant music and stories in Rome

17.00 Coffee break

17.30–18.30 PANEL I (room 108)

Hanna Gospodarczyk, Małgorzata Łukianow (Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, Polish Academy of Sciences), The Study of Void – the case of Brzesko and Nowy Wiśnicz

Lea Ganor (Research Associate Institute of Holocaust Research Bar-Ilan University), Oral history, memory and testimony – case study: Life stories Holocaust Survivor Aircrew Members in the Israeli Air Force

Aleksandra Szczepan (Jagiellonian University), Whose Lvov, Whose Suffering? Oral history and the bystanders of the Shoah

PANEL II (room 212)

Tiiu Jaago (Estonia), History-telling – inter/disciplinary trends and international parallels in Estonia

Vladimir Volodin (European University Institute, Italy), Oral history in Belarus: academic discipline outside of academia

Fingerroos Outi (Department of History and Ethnology, Finland), The oral history of Finnish migration

PANEL III (room 307)

Wiktoria Kudela-Świątek (Pedagogical University of Cracow), The use of autoethnography in oral history. Analyzing narrative reality

Marcin Stasiak (Jagiellonian University) Pleasure and discovering the past. A few remarks on interviewing techniques/methods

Jakub Gałęziowski (University of Warsaw / University of Augsburg), Oral history and biographical research. Two perspectives – one goal?

18.30–19.00 Summary and discussion

Summary and discussion

Summary and discussion

19.30 Reception for conference participants (“U Pęcherza” Restaurant, Collegium Maius, ul. Jagiellońska 15)

March 29th, 2019 (Friday)

09.30–10.30 PANEL IV (room 212)

Marta Kubiszyn (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Lublin), The exhibition "Lublin. Memory of the place": making use of oral history in the process of narrating Polish-Jewish past

Telukha Svitlana (National Technical University "Kharkiv Polytechnic Institute"), Oral-history project "Vilcha the resettled village": additions to public history

Filip Mazurczak (Jagiellonian University), Children of the Holocaust, not Poland's Morranos: the unique challenges of interviewing Poland's last generation of Holocaust Survivors

10.30–11.00 Summary and discussion

PANEL V (room 307)

Anna Kurpiel (University of Wrocław), First settlers in Olesnica. Doing oral history in a middle-sized Polish city

Agata Tatarenko (Institute of Central Europe), Crosses and wayside shrine of the Międzyrzec Podlaski commune book and film: oral history between public history and politics of memory

Aleksandra Paprot-Wielopolska (The "Remembrance and Future" Centre Wrocław), Żuławy – the cultural landscape of the region and the farmer's work in the narratives of post-war settlers living in rural areas

Summary and discussion

PANEL VI (Józef Tischner Aula)

Klara Jackl, Józef Markiewicz (POLIN Museum of the History of the Polish Jews), Beyond camera lenses. Oral history practice as participatory process

Natalia Otrishchenko (Center for Urban History of East Central Europe, Lviv), Curating Oral History Archive in contemporary Ukraine various publics and formats of communication

Mary Patrice Erdmans (Case Western Reserve University), In their own words, in a second language: Conducting oral histories across borders

Summary and discussion

11.00 Coffee break

11.20–12.20 PANEL VII (room 2012)

Anna Wylegała (Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, Polish Academy of Sciences), Interviewing both sides: an Oral history of the social conflict

Dagmara Chełstowska, Matylda Tamborska (University of Warsaw), Wychowani do buntu? Pamięć zbiorowa polskich manifestacji

Grażyna Kubica (Jagiellonian University), Dubious Minorities – problems of domination and resistance in oral history (Teschen Silesia examples)

12.20–12.50 Summary and discussion

PANEL VIII (307)

Adriana Kapała (The KARTA Center, Warsaw), „Historians” and „radio speakers”: Oral history from the Eastern Archives of KARTA Center

Ewa Maj (The „Remembrance and Future” Centre, Wrocław), Journalistic interview and biographical account in meetings with Marian Orzechowski

Lisa Camicos (USA) The Orlando Plan: Saving Volos

Summary and discussion

PANEL IX (Józef Tischner Aula)

Linde Apel (Forschungsstelle für Zeitgeschichte in Hamburg), Oral History on the move! – from below to institutional acknowledgment and back?

Izabela Lewandowska, Katarzyna Hincmann (University of Warmia and Mazury, Olsztyn), Oral history in Germany and Poland – comparison attempt

Summary and discussion

12.50 Lunch break

15.00–16.00 PANEL X (room 2012)

Lenka Krátká (Institute of Contemporary History, the Czech Academy of Sciences), Business trips abroad experienced by Czechoslovaks during the socialist times, perspective of those who "stayed at home" – partners, family members

Jiří Hlaváček (Czech Academy of Sciences), Oral History of compulsory military service in the Czech lands (1968–2004)

Adrian-George Matus (European University Institute, Florence), Breakin' the Law: 1968 in Hungary and Romania

16.00–16.30 Summary and discussion

PANEL XI (room 307)

Joanna Łuba, Dominik Czapigo (The KARTA Center, Warsaw), Polacos or Poles – oral history of immigration.

Dariusz Zdziech (Jagiellonian University), They speak for themselves. Oral history in New Zealand's Poles publications

Karolina Baraniak (University of Wrocław), Still alive thanks to memories... – oral history and Chilean enforced disappeared

Summary and discussion

PANEL XII (Józef Tischner Aula)

Michał Studniarek (Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences), Memories compared: a case study

Martina Koegeler-Abdi (Saxo Institute, University of Copenhagen), Oral history and family secrecy

Katarzyna Bock-Matuszyk (The "Remembrance and Future" Centre, Wrocław), „And the next few decades were like a blink of an eye” – time, past and metaphor in oral histories of the centenarians

Summary and discussion

16.30 Coffee break

16.50–17.50	PANEL XIII (room 2012) Lavinia Besliu (Faculty of History and Philosophy, Babes-Bolyai University, Cluj), Doing oral history with evangelical communities in North-East Romania Gozde Orhan (Antinbas University, Istanbul), Remembering a massacre: How did the rise of oral history as a methodology improve Dersim studies Amy Hodgson (University of Melbourne), [Re]trauma and testimony: Oral history and testimony in the Chilean transition	PANEL XIV (room 307) Ginta Elksne (Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, University of Latvia), "That true sense of belonging I can get only in my Latvian community": Latvian emigrants in Sweden after 1991 Irena Saleniece (Daugavpils University), Traumatic memories of forced change of ethnic, religious and social identities during the sovietization of Latvia Maruta Pranka (Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, Latvia University), In the crossroads of old stories and mixed identities	PANEL XV (Józef Tischner Aula) Mambet Koigeldiyev (National Academy of Sciences of Kazakhstan, Abai Kazakh National Pedagogical University), The national character of the Suzak Uprising in 1930 in Kazakhstan (according to archival sources and materials of oral history) Myrzatayeva Zabira (Abai Kazakh National Pedagogical University), Soviet Kazakhstan (Qazaqstan) through the Eyes of Polish and Kazak (Qazaq) children of war 1940–1945: Through the prism of oral history Tenlik Dalayeva (Abai Kazakh Pedagogical University), Ashysay-Kentau (1955–1958): Socio-cultural identity of residents in oral narratives
17.50–18.10	Summary and discussion	Summary and discussion	Summary and discussion

18.20 Conference Summary (Józef Tischner Aula)

March 30th, 2019 (Saturday)

10.00 General meeting of the members of Polish Oral History Association (room 17)
/ Krakow tour in English with a guide for volunteers (sign in via: oralhistoryinaction@pthm.pl)

11.30 Coffee break

11.50–13.30 Workshop by Alina Doboszewska (in Polish): Granice odpowiedzialności. Zagadnienia etyczne w projektach historii mówionej (Limits of liability. Ethical issues in oral history projects) / sign in via: dobrawola.fundacja@gmail.com

For any other information please contact us via: oralhistoryinaction@pthm.pl

For more details see: www.pthm.pl

Organizers:

